wed. 23rd June - en route to ①
St. Anne. where we will spend a day. Sunny. Cold. I should have brought gloves. We plan to take down the bikes and spend the day.

Almost from the moment
we began to cruise,
it began

"Show me
Now I can rest too!
Henry Higgins

No wild ~~any~~ mammals. * ②
Too cold to write
Lucky I brought 35MM
maybe it's warm in the Med.
* Trees full of nuts & seeds, but not a squirrel. Now Bobo not sure it was a squirrel he saw. The tail was so red it could have been a cat.
Took a walk (Mort & I) Wild strawberries. Blossoms & fruit mushrooms (Toadstools) Snails

worked it all out

Thursday - June 17, 1999

Left Chaumont at 7:00 A.M.
It will be a sunny warm
day.

The same edurcur that helped us into Chaumont
will be with us all day today.
She is a great help. But saddy ~~she~~ even though she appear older - Paula's eye. post both.
We are able to laugh & chat together.

6-26-99 Saturday
We will leave camp today, and stop at Pontelle, which is on the Loane Stone River.
2 Running Camp from St.
Jeanne.

Monday - 14th

Fouldain to — Chaumont

Cold - Camp - fog
still beautiful Rained off & on Rain stopped as we moored.

Capitainerie

Because no squirrels
the trees were dropping with pine cones, & seed pods - old &
new.
